NMIOTC COM's Visit to the American University in the Emirates

From 12 to 13 of November 2024, the Commandant of the NATO Maritime Interdiction Operational Training Centre (NMIOTC) paid an official visit to the American University in the Emirates (AUE), in order to sign a bilateral Educational Cooperation Agreement between NMIOTC and the AUE.

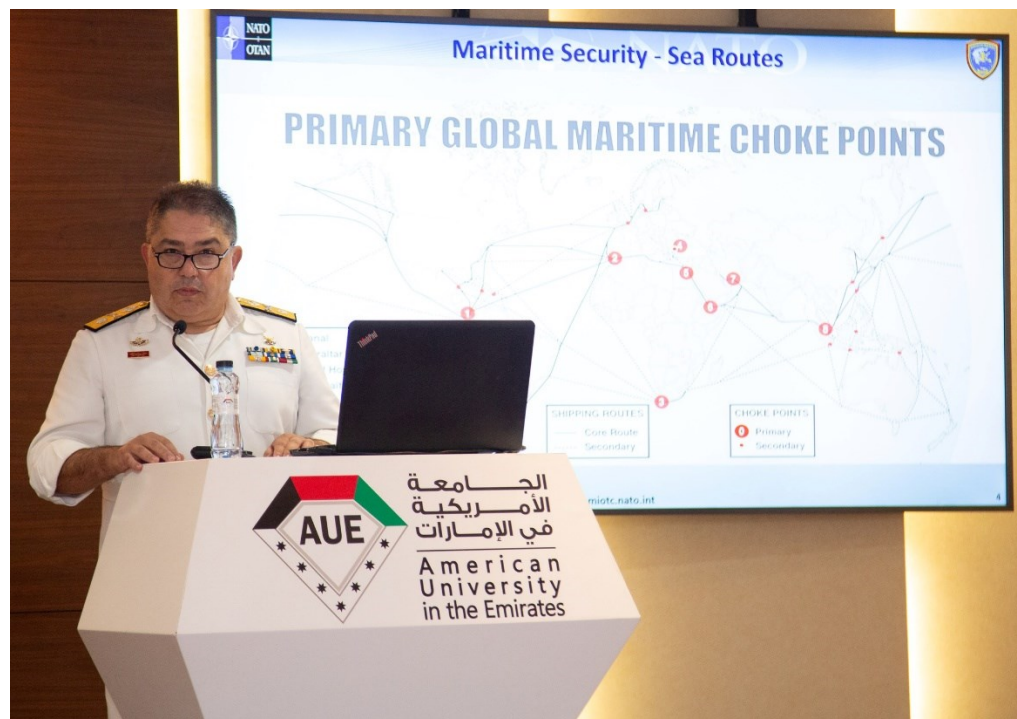

The Commandant was received by Professor Muthanna G. Abdul Razzaq, President and CEO of the AUE where they discussed the modalities of the future cooperation between AUE and NMIOTC, in the field of Maritime Security.

Moreover, he visited the AUE's Campus and had discussions with the Provost of the University, Professor William Cornwell, and the Dean of College of Security and Global Studies (CSGS), Professor Chahine Ghais. Furthermore, the Commandant presented 'the Contemporary Maritime Interdiction and the role of NMIOTC' to the students of the CSGS.

NMIOTC Commandant invited AUE's leadership to visit the Centre for the 16th Annual Conference (4-5 June 2025).
